

Great selection

Choose from popular makes and models such as Ford, Chevrolet, Dodge and Jeep. Over 40,000 vehicles are being sold to the public this year.

Great quality

Many 2000 – 2001 models

- Low mileage
- Well maintained
- Popular styles and colors
- Power steering, A/C, power windows, AM/FM cassette decks

Typically these vehicles have been used for ordinary transportation by government agencies. (These are not specialized military or repossessed vehicles.)

Great savings

Most vehicles sell at wholesale prices. There are no buyer's fees.

Very convenient

Use our Web site to find an auction near you, search for specific models and download auction lists. More than fifty auction sites nationwide. Vehicles are available for inspection. Many payment options.

These vehicles are clean, detailed and ready to go.

at auction

Buying a vehicle pre-owned by the U.S. government is simple. If you are new to the auction process, let us help.

This brochure describes who we are, what to expect, and where to find our vehicles at an auction near you.

Our Web site www.autoauctions.gsa.gov provides lists of vehicles for sale, auction locations and times, and a description of the process.

The local auction houses where we sell our vehicles will also guide you. While the sales representatives mainly cater to auto dealers, they are happy to assist members of the general public to buy at GSA Fleet Vehicle Sales.

To make your purchase even easier and more economical, there are no auction buyer's fees at our sales.

Who we are and why we sell

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) is the federal agency that buys fleet vehicles new and leases them to other federal agencies. When these vehicles complete their lease term we sell them to renew the government fleet.

Rely on the U.S. government

GSA strives to deliver all its vehicles in premium condition. Experience our solid reputation for transparency and fairness. We want you to speak well of us to other potential buyers.

Terms and conditions

The vehicles are sold as is, so inspect the vehicle before making a bid. Complete Terms and Conditions are available on our Web site or at the sale.

Buyer's Checklist

5 easy steps to purchasing a pre-owned vehicle from the U.S. government

1. Find an auction near you.

See our Web site at www.autoauctions.gsa.gov and download a sales list. Or call the auction house and ask "When is the next GSA Auction?"

2. Register and preview at auction — it's free.

At the auction house, register for the sale, and use the inventory list to inspect vehicles on the lot. You may turn on the engine, but driving is not permitted.

3. Choose several vehicles to bid on.

Have a few alternatives to increase your chances during the bidding.

4. Make a successful bid!

New to the auction process? Ask the auction staff how it works. Prior to the sale, you may practice bidding in a mock auction.

5. Make payment without any buyer's fees.

Buyers typically pay by credit card, debit card, cashier's check or money order. Ask the sales representatives what is accepted.

Thousands of people buy from us. You can, too!
